Local Business Owner and Conservative
Cleophus Dulaney Gears Up for November
General Election in Ohio's 3rd
Congressional District

COLUMBUS, OH – September 2, 2026 – Cleophus Dulaney, a local Columbus business owner, single father, and dedicated conservative, is officially mobilizing his campaign for the general election on November 3, 2026. After advancing from the Republican primary earlier this spring, Dulaney is building momentum in his race to represent Ohio's 3rd Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Running on a platform of traditional values and localized economic revitalization, Dulaney's campaign is heavily focused on the issues directly impacting the daily lives of Central Ohio residents.

"I am a conservative, old-fashioned type of guy with traditional values that have guided me from childhood into adulthood, and as a father raising three beautiful daughters," Dulaney stated regarding his campaign. "My priority is to serve the constituents of our district by tackling the real crises happening right here in our own neighborhoods."

Key Campaign Priorities:

- Combating the Affordable Housing Crisis: With the Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission (MORPC) projecting a regional population of 3 million by 2050, Dulaney is prioritizing immediate action on the gentrification of housing in the 3rd District. His platform champions property tax relief and home improvement grants to keep Columbus families in their homes.

- Community Safety and Rehabilitation:

Dulaney is advocating for stronger, positive relationships between neighborhoods and local police forces. Additionally, he has outlined plans to aggressively address homelessness and provide comprehensive rehab solutions for those battling opioid addiction.

- Constitutional Rights and Traditional Values: As a staunch conservative, Dulaney remains deeply committed to protecting the Second Amendment, supporting pro-life legislation, and instituting sensible, secure immigration policies.

Raised in Birmingham, Alabama, before planting roots and building a business in Ohio, Dulaney emphasizes his resilience and work ethic. "I never quit, and I am always doing the best at what I do," Dulaney said. "I want my legacy to be that I made a tangible difference for the people of this district."

Dulaney will face Democratic incumbent Joyce Beatty in the upcoming general election. His campaign is currently launching community outreach initiatives across Franklin County to connect with voters, hear their concerns, and share his vision for a safer, more affordable Columbus.
